

Through the years there has been too much deregulation by the FCC.
The McDonald'sizing of the media will not improve anything but the bottom line of the media giants. There is no diversity when a few control all the outlets.

Please try and do something in the public's interest, that is something Washington does very little of.

Thank you,

Dennis R. Atkinson